The Multicultural Problem Gambling Service for NSW provides free and confidential financial counselling services to problem gamblers and their families from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds living in NSW.

Financial counsellors can provide support in the following ways:

- Provide options to address financial difficulties
- Negotiate repayment arrangements with creditors
- Explore eligibility for government assistance
- Link you to other appropriate services such as counselling, emergency relief and legal support
- Assistance with organising personal finances and developing a budget

An interpreter can be arranged, if required.
